Aloha,

The Institute on Violence, Abuse and Trauma (IVAT), has the pleasure to invite you to participate in the upcoming 21st Hawai'i International Summit on Preventing, Assessing & Treating Trauma Across the Lifespan, and the theme is Cultivating Healing and Nurturing Connections: Caring for the Earth and Personal Wellness. We are pleased to hold this Summit once again at the Hawai'i Convention Center in Honolulu, and look forward to you joining us as an integral part of our efforts to surpass the successes of previous years.

We welcome participation and support from sponsors, exhibitors, collaborating organizations, advertisers, and vendors. The materials attached to this prospectus contain information about each of these various ways to participate. IVAT has enjoyed solid community and corporate support over the years, and we are grateful for your consideration of the various opportunities available to support our continued work to end interpersonal violence. Your participation at any of the levels is crucial to increasing accessibility to quality care for victims and survivors of violence, abuse and trauma across the lifespan.

This year, we are again focusing on domestic violence, child abuse, adverse childhood experiences, children exposed to violence, at risk youth, criminal justice issues, sexual assault, unserved and underserved populations, first responders, human trafficking, treatment of victims and offenders, trauma among military personnel, veterans & their families, elder abuse, trauma-informed care, substance abuse, prevention efforts and more. We have added a new track that will focus on grief, loss, & healing after disaster trauma.

Mutually beneficial reasons to consider becoming an active supporter of the Summit include:

- Increased exposure on an international level through placement of your organization's information on our website, social media sites, in the program event mobile app and promotions.
- Identification with IVAT in the global efforts against violence, abuse and trauma.
- Access local, regional, national and global resources in the promotion of peace movement.
- Networking opportunities at the upper levels of international collaboration of public and private organizations, individuals, policy makers and government officials.
